

DES WATTS AND HIS BMW ... TRAVELLING NORTH

A member and past President of the Rotary Club on Berri, South Australia, Des Watts is well on the way to making his dream real. Since leaving the ShelterBox office in Melbourne 16 days ago Des is heading into Cairns before turning back to Charters Towers. Rotarians have escorted him along the way, particularly members of the International Fellowship of Motorcycling Rotarians and other associations. Wet weather conditions a few days ago tested him: they were the worst he has ever experienced on the open road. Des has been made most welcome at Rotary Club meetings and in homes, and extends his appreciation again through this office as he presses onwards. Here are some photos ...
